14-09-68630.0003.18561	Examination Forms and Answer Sheets -- Non-retrievable by Students A record of student answers to examination questions. This retention period applies to those graded exams not retrievable by students. Faculty determine whether particular course exams may be retrieved by the student. These records are non-disclosable under 20 U.S.C. 1232g (a) (4) (A) (i) and (ii), except as authorized under 20 U.S.C. 1232g (b). Test questions and other exam data that will be re-used are exempt from public records disclosure under RCW 42.56.250(1). If the faculty member has determined that students may retrieve graded exams, papers, or assignments, and students do not do so, the exams, papers, or assignments should be considered non-record abandoned property, and may be dealt with as other confidential waste paper. However, we recommend retention of such material for 6 months after the final grade is recorded or the grade for an incomplete course (K grade) lapses to a grade of "Z."	Retain for 0.25 years after final grade for the course is recorded and any academic grievances have been resolved then Destroy

WWU Disposition Authority Reference	Records Series Title/Description	Retention and Disposition Instructions
GS 50008.0001.18353	Budget and Funding Requests Preparation Materials Materials gathered and used to prepare budgets and funding requests, as well as well as copies of requests submitted to a higher-level unit for funding.	Retain until no longer needed for agency business then Destroy Since these records are not the final budgets (as approved by the State or uploaded into the university's financial system) they technically do not have any retention requirements. However, UARM recommends that these materials be kept for 3 years after the fiscal year for use in preparing future budgets.
GS 01001.0001.18420	Budget Reconciliation and Monitoring Records Financial records and reports used to reconcile and monitor expenses and income for a unit when the files contain unique transaction records that are not captured in an official university system (for example, original purchasing card receipts for purchases made outside of a university system). Copies of reports or other records that can be generated from or are stored in online university systems have minimal retention and should be held as Financial Records - Duplicate Copies (GS 50005.001.18394). However, if these duplicate records are filed with original financial documentation (such as purchasing card receipts), then this records series should be applied to the files to ensure the original documentation is held for the appropriate retention period.	Retain for 6 years after fiscal then Destroy This retention period only applies to these records when original documentation (like purchasing card receipts) that is not uploaded into an online university system is included in the files. If no such materials exist in these reconciliation/monitoring records, then the retention period(s) for the other record type(s) will apply.
GS 01001.0001.18367	Cash Handling Records Records relating to the receipt of cash by a university office for goods or services provided to students or the public. May include cash receipts or department deposit records.	Retain for 6 years after fiscal then Destroy

GS 50005.0001.18435	Contracts and Agreements (Office copies) Office copies of contracts and agreements that are held by Contracts Administration.	Retain until no longer needed for agency business then Destroy
GS 50005.0001.18394	Financial Records - Duplicate Copies Copies of financial records (created or received), provided the original documentation or information is contained in university systems. Also covers financial reports that can be regenerated from official university systems at a future date with the same results. This series does not cover purchasing card records, cash receipts, or external invoices that document transactions or parts of transactions made outside of official university purchasing systems.	Retain until no longer needed for agency business then Destroy
GS 01001.0001.18361	Interdepartmental Invoices and Journal Voucher Documentation Provides a record of charges to individual departments/offices for goods and/or services. These records support the journal vouchering process. Hard copy records of the journal vouchering process that are created in, or uploaded into, an approved online university system may be destroyed when no longer needed. Any documentation kept outside of the approved system must be kept for the retention period indicated here.	Retain for 6 years after fiscal then Destroy

GS 50005.0001.18328	Travel Records Office copies of records processed through official online university travel system. Includes travel authorization, arrangement, travel receipt documentation, and reimbursement of expenses (including advance payments). Records of travel not entered into approved online university systems must be kept for 6 years after the fiscal year in which the travel was completed (contact University Records Management for more information). Receipts and other materials that are scanned into the official online university system may have additional retention requirements if funded by a grant or outside entity.	Retain until no longer needed for agency business then Destroy The official copy of these records should be held in the university's approved online travel system. However, offices and/or travelers are responsible for maintaining original documentation of trips (i.e., receipts) to confirm acceptance of receipt scans in system or for as long as may be required for other purposes (e.g., records of grant sponsored travel may have retention requirements set by the grant or the granting agency, or university units may have internal policies governing how long travel records must be kept).
