Plenty of Things to Do

THE WORK OF NORTHWEST CHILDREN’S AUTHOR
DORIS BURN

An exploration of the work and legacy of Doris Burn, an award-winning children’s author and illustrator whose work has connected with readers across generations.

OCTOBER 3RD THROUGH MARCH 10TH
SPECIAL COLLECTIONS WILSON LIBRARY 6TH FLOOR
M-F 11 AM - 4 PM (CLOSED WEEKENDS & HOLIDAYS)

Contact: CPNWS Archivist Ruth Steele (Ruth.Steele@wwu.edu; 360-650-7747)

Photographs of author/artist Doris Burn courtesy of Richard Brummett and illustrations from The Summerfolk, courtesy of Doris Burn Illustrations and Manuscripts, Center for Pacific Northwest Studies, Western Libraries Heritage Resources. Author/artist Doris Burn, c/o the Doris Burn Legacy LLC

Western Libraries Connects - People to People, People to Place, People to Learning.