“Germany: Integrating Immigrants” explores the experiences of first- and second-generation immigrants, refugees, and asylum seekers, and provides contextual information about Germany’s history, economy, and public policy. The exhibition comprises 30 posters that illustrate individual stories and viewpoints from immigrants and refugees, as well as from German volunteers and professionals who are working towards better integration.

October 24 – December 15, 2017
in Special Collections
(Wilson Library 6th Floor)
Open Monday – Friday
11am to 4pm (excluding holidays)

This exhibition is made possible by a grant from the German Information Center at the Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany, and is supported by a partnership from Western’s Department of Modern & Classical Languages, Western Libraries, and the Ray Wolpow Institute for the Study of the Holocaust, Genocide, and Crimes Against Humanity.

For information about the exhibit and related events, please contact Cornelius.Partsch@wwu.edu / (360) 650-3929.