Designated by the Poetry Foundation as the nation’s first Children’s Poet Laureate in 2006, Jack Prelutsky is best known for his humorous and imaginative verse. While Jack has been making words rhyme for over forty-five years, his career began as a folk singer in coffeehouses and with uncertain aspirations of becoming an operatic tenor, and music is deeply entwined with his poetry. Jack has published over seventy books of poetry, and will perform musical poetry as part of this very special event.

Saturday, October 1, 2016
4:30 - 5:30pm
Western Washington University
Western Libraries Reading Room
(Wilson Library 4th Floor Central)
Complimentary parking near the library available in Lot 14G

Questions? Contact Sylvia.Tag@wwu.edu or call (360) 650-7992.